HOLIDAYS – ONE AND ALL!  by Kathy Turner, Associate Dean of Libraries

You are invited to share your holiday greetings with the campus community by posting a seasonal message – for all to enjoy – in the Evans Library lobby. Offices, groups, and individuals are encouraged to bring or send cards, notes, or other greetings so that they can be added to the sentiments that are collecting there. Create a personal greeting that celebrates your favorite holiday.

We in the library hope that a wide representation of languages, a variety of celebrations, and many meaningful expressions will be visible on first-floor library columns. We also hope that, over the next few weeks, administrators, faculty, staff, students, and campus visitors alike will drop by to enjoy the good wishes.

WHAT’S ON DISPLAY?

Stop in to see one or all!

- The College of Psychology & Liberal Arts’ a-MAZE-ing Human Experience
- Our government information timeline, which celebrates 50 years of participation in the Federal Depository Library program
- Our Greek Life display features all FIT sororities and fraternities and contains historical artifacts and publications.

LIBRARY RESOURCES NEWS

The contents of the Scholarship Repository of Florida Institute of Technology can now be found by searching Summon from the library’s website.

We now have access to the SPIE Digital Library, including the much-requested Proceedings of the SPIE, available from A to Z Databases. SPIE is an international society advancing an interdisciplinary approach to the science and application of light.

An Apple TV has been installed in the Link Multimedia room. Now, staff and faculty can share the display of their Airplay-compatible devices via the document camera. If you need help using the Apple TV, please ask at the Service Desk.

Mango Languages is now available from A to Z Databases. There are courses for over 60 languages available for English speakers, as well as over 15 English courses for other language speakers. Create an account and start learning!
