FROM THE INTERIM DEAN’S DESK

The Evans Library is changing, changing, changing! You don’t need to look far to see demonstrated evidence of improved facilities, innovative instruction, enhanced outreach, and value-added technologies. In addition to all of those advancements, we are celebrating two significant career landmarks. Ilona Mueller, who has dished up her own energetic brand of Evans Library access services for decades, retired in late May. Jean Sparks, known for her many years of dedication to government information and campus service, will retire in early July. Congratulations to these librarians and to every member of the Evans Library organization who has contributed to significant progress!

LIBRARY DISPLAYS

Did you get a chance to fly the Elite flight simulator in our College of Aeronautics research display? If not, come see us in August or September, when our flight schedule resumes.

Edmund Skellings, Poet of Technology is on exhibit in the Evans Library lobby, with an online archive at http://research.fit.edu/edmundskellings. The archive includes the Electric Poet’s featured works, animated poems, interviews, and more.

View all the displays online at http://lib.fit.edu/library-displays.

GET SOCIAL

Students, faculty, staff, and friends can now like Evans Library on Facebook and follow us on Twitter!

- https://www.facebook.com/evanslibraryfl
- https://twitter.com/EvansLibrary1

AROUND THE LIBRARY

Evans Library continues enhancements with more study areas, new carpet making its way to the second and third floors, and a fresh face for our Service Desk.

Look for the library to be fully carpeted and a new study space on the third floor in the very near future!

Our second-floor reading area boasts excellent natural lighting.

The Link Multimedia Room gets a fresh look.

Jim Baucom and Angela Taylor enjoy the Service Desk’s new crimson color.

EASY INSTRUCTION SUMMER SESSIONS SCHEDULED

- June 18, 1 p.m. and June 19, 6 p.m. – Google Scholar Citations with Rose Petralia
- July 16, 1 p.m. and July 17, 6 p.m. – eBooks with Ann Sepri

Find session details and a link to our archive of past events at http://lib.fit.edu/instruction/easy-instruction.php.

Have a suggestion for a future topic? Email petraliar@fit.edu.

BEYOND WORDS

Looking back at the time I've already spent at Florida Tech, I could list quite a few amazing things about the library. There are the vast resources, physical and digital, that have helped me finish many a paper. There are the staff, who have always helped me find said resources when I've had no idea where to begin. There are even the group study rooms, provided so that I and my classmates have a place to work on team projects. But the thing I love the most is that Evans Library is a guaranteed quiet place to study. When dorms are raging with parties and the SUB is full of students at play, Evans Library provides some peace and quiet and a place to study for a test or finish up a project. My GPA has been saved more than a few times by the perfect environment to focus on my work.

FROM THE INTERIM DEAN’S DESK

The Evans Library is changing, changing, changing! You don’t need to look far to see demonstrated evidence of improved facilities, innovative instruction, enhanced outreach, and value-added technologies. In addition to all of those advancements, we are celebrating two significant career landmarks. Ilona Mueller, who has dished up her own energetic brand of Evans Library access services for decades, retired in late May. Jean Sparks, known for her many years of dedication to government information and campus service, will retire in early July. Congratulations to these librarians and to every member of the Evans Library organization who has contributed to significant progress!

Evans Library · Florida Institute of Technology · 150 W. University Blvd. · Melbourne, Florida · 32901-6975 · Phone: (321) 674-8086 · Fax: (321) 724-2559 · Email: petraliar@fit.edu