

DEED OF GIFT
HARRY P. WEBER UNIVERSITY ARCHIVES
& FLORIDA TECH SPECIAL COLLECTIONS

I, _____, “Donor”, hereby unconditionally donate the materials (described in the attached list) to Florida Institute of Technology “University” for inclusion in its collection. As sole owner of these materials, the Donor gives physical ownership of them to the University. Upon the delivery of the materials to the University’s authorized representative, the Donor gives, assigns, and transfers to the university any and all rights, title, and interest in the copyright which they possess to the contents of the materials.

The donated materials shall be preserved, organized, and made available for research and/or education in accordance with the University’s policies and standard archival practice. The University is authorized to make copies, display any materials in exhibitions online, and both on and off campus, reproduce, digitize, and provide public access to the materials online and in person in accordance with the university’s policies. Materials may be used to illustrate University publications.

In the event that the Donor may, from time to time, give additional papers to the archives, title to such additional materials shall pass to the University and all the provisions of this Deed of Gift shall be applicable to the additional materials.

The University is authorized to dispose of any materials in the collection in accordance with Library policies. In the event of disposition, the materials may, if specified below, be offered to the Donor or their designee as a courtesy.
