

ORAL HISTORY DEED OF GIFT
HARRY P. WEBER UNIVERSITY ARCHIVES
& FLORIDA TECH SPECIAL COLLECTIONS

(a) I, _____, hereby give to Florida Institute of Technology the recordings of interview(s) conducted with me on _____, and I transfer to Florida Tech all of the rights, title, and interest I possess in those recordings, including legal title, and literary and intellectual property rights, including copyright.

The recordings, video and/or audio, transcripts, and any other form of the interviews will be made available to the public for research and education in accordance with the university's policies and maintained according to standard archival practice. The university is authorized to make whatever use it chooses of the recordings.

The university is authorized to make copies, display in exhibitions both on and off campus, reproduce, digitize, and disseminate all forms of the record in any way, including making the interviews freely available electronically and online.

I understand that Florida Tech grants me an unrestricted, nonexclusive license to make and to authorize others to make any use I wish of the content of those recordings, and that Florida Tech will make available to me a copy of those recordings for such use.

If I wish to remain anonymous in any interview transcript or reference to any information contained in this interview, I will specify this restriction below. The foregoing gift and grant of rights is subject to the following restrictions:

This agreement may be revised or amended by mutual consent of the parties undersigned.
